Journey to Tibet's Lost Lama

A Woman's Pilgrimage, the Karmapa in Exile, and the Fate of Modern Tibet

- Includes an up-to-date biography of the 17th Karmapa of Tibet

This book describes a personal, spiritual, and historical journey into the fascinating culture of Tibet and its Lama heritage. The once-in-a-lifetime experience of personally meeting with the Dalai Lama changed author Gaby Naher's life and started her on a personal pilgrimage to meet Tibet's second most renowned lama, the 17th Karmapa.

In Journey to Tibet's Lost Lama, Naher invites readers to join her journey far into the mountains of Northern India for a meeting with the young spiritual leader who is forced by Sino-Indian politics to live in a deserted monastery as a prisoner in all but name.

Along the way, Naher paints a vivid portrait of the multifaceted backdrop to the boy's life by skillfully weaving together the life story of the boy lama, the biographies of the previous 16 incarnations of the Karmapa, and the recent history of Tibet. Full of intrigue, drama and miracle, the story reads like colorful fiction yet holds the pain and hope of truth.
